

How to Choose Your Wedding Photographer ?

GUIDE

Massimo Russo

#1

Introduction

Your wedding day is one of the most meaningful days of your life.

The emotions, the people, the details, you'll want to remember it all.

That's why choosing the right photographer is more than just ticking a box, it's about finding someone who can tell your story with honesty, style, and heart.

This guide will walk you through what to look for, what to ask, and how to feel confident in your choice.

#2

What Matters Most?

✓ Style

Every photographer has a different visual language. Do you love candid moments, editorial portraits, or dreamy film vibes?

Tip: Browse portfolios and notice what draws your eye. Light? Composition? Emotion?

✓ Personality

Your photographer will be with you all day — make sure you connect with them. Do they make you feel comfortable, seen, understood?

✓ Experience

Weddings are fast-paced. A professional knows how to work with light, time, and people, even in chaos.

#3

Questions to Ask Before Booking

1. What's your approach on the day? More hands-on or documentary?
2. Can we see a full gallery from a real wedding?
3. How do you handle unexpected situations (rain, delays, low light)?
4. Do you work with a second shooter or solo?
5. What's your turnaround time for photos?
6. What's included in your packages?

Choosing your wedding photographer is choosing the eyes that will tell your story.
Take your time, ask questions, and find someone whose work speaks to your heart.

If you're still looking for the right fit, I'd love to hear your story.
